Different expectations for JH

- More things are on your own so you have to know what is going on. Teachers AND coaches will expect you to be responsible for yourself and your things
- Bringing your materials to class: books, paper, homework, pencil, Chromebook, etc. to class each period
- Being responsible for new “freedoms”, like chewing gum and not walking in lines BUT with that freedom comes more responsibility. You really have to manage your time or it can cause trouble for you!
- Getting to class on time
- Using the restroom in the appropriate amount of time
- Coming to class prepared
- DOING HOMEWORK; JH rule is that you get 1 day to turn things in late and you only get 1/2 credit. Anything after that is a 0.

This performing group is an extension of Color Guard and performs at several competitions and select JV and Varsity basketball games. The Winter Guard performs indoors and on a basketball-size gym floor. Performers dance and spin with flags, rifles, sabers, hoops, ribbons, etc. to a three-five minute musical selection. Students may be required to perform with the marching band or Color Guard during the fall to be eligible to participate in the Winter Guard. The Winter Guard season runs from late October to the end of March.
