A program designed for youth with disabilities

Have you ever imagined if there was a program out there that could help you live as independently as possible? What about one that would help support your hopes and dreams? Look no further than SICIL's Imagine IF...

SICIL's Imagine IF... assist youth with disabilities as they transition into adulthood.

This could include exploring:

- Post-secondary education
- Employment opportunities
- Work with you one-on-one and group settings to establish goals
- Assist with identifying the necessary services or resources to meet those goals.
- Peer mentorship opportunities
- independent living skills training
- Opportunity to participate in a youth advisory board
